OFFICE OF THE DEPUTY COMMISSIONER,
HASSAN DISTRICT

Dated Hassan, the 24th June 193f.

From T. Ramaiya, Esq., B.A., (Hons.)
The Deputy Commissioner, Hassan District

To

F.H. Krishna Rao, Esq., M.A.,
Secretary to Government,
L.S.G. Department, Bangalore.

Sir,

Subject:- Re. the adoption of the Bye-laws for enforcing the compulsory registration of marriages in Town Municipalities.-

As desired in your letter No. L.S.G.d-f/Ml. 139-37-5 dated 15th January 193f on the above subject, I have the honor to forward herewith in original, the correspondence ending with Nelamangala Town Municipal President's report No. M.C. 47-37, dated 1st June 193f, and to state as follows:-

2. The Nelamangala Town Municipal Council adopted the Bye-laws at their meeting held on 31st March 193f and resolved that the same might be published in the town and objections called for. Accordingly, the President called for objections, on 31st March 193f. As no objection was received, the matter was again placed before the Municipal Council at their meeting held on 30th April 193f, and they resolved that the Bye-laws might be submitted for sanction. The President has, inpursuance of the above resolution applied for sanction. I request you to be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government to the Bye-laws referred to above.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
Deputy Commissioner,
Hassan District.

By-Laws

III. Draft rules for enforcing the compulsory registration of Marriages in City and Town Municipalities.

(Framed under Section 41 (1) (f) of the City Municipal Regulation VII of 1977, and Section 42 (1) (f) of the Town Municipal Regulation VIII of 1978.)

Registrar General of Marriages.

1. The Registrar-General of Births and Deaths, who shall be the Director of Health to the Government of Mysore for the time being, shall also act as the Registrar-General of Marriages.

Similarly the Registrars of Births and Deaths shall act as the Registrars of Marriages.

Purpose of registration is merely the recording of the fact of marriage.

2. The registration of a marriage will be recorded of the fact of marriage and will in no way affect the validity of the marriage.

Information of marriage to be given within seven days.

3. Information covering all the particulars specified in Form No. V.S.3(b) appended shall be given to the Registrar of the Division within one week after the day of marriage regarding every marriage that takes place within the Municipal limits.

The duty of giving notice of a marriage is laid, in the first instance, upon the father, mother or guardian of the bride and bridegroom.

Should these be unable or fail to give notice, the duty is laid on the priest in attendance at the marriage.

Registrar to register information without fee or reward and to inform himself of every marriage.

4. Every Registrar shall inform himself carefully of every marriage which takes place in his division and shall register, as soon as conveniently may be after the event, without fee or reward, the particulars required to be registered under by-law 3, touching every such marriage which has not already been registered.

Form of marriage registers to be maintained in orginal, duplicate and triplicate.

5. The Registers of Marriages shall be maintained in Form No. V.S. 3(b) appended in original, duplicate and triplicate.

Entries to be numbered serially for each year.

6. In this register the occurrences registered shall be numbered serially, the series of numbers running from 1st January to 31st December for each year. No entry shall be interpolated between two serial numbers.

Written information received by the Registrar to be preserved for two years.

7. All information received by the Registrar in writing in connection with the registration of marriages shall be filed by him and preserved for two years.

Registers to be renewed once in two years. Registers to be sent by Superintendent, Govern-

8. Each Register shall consist of 72 pages - 24 original, 24 duplicate and 24 triplicate - and shall be used continuously for a period of two years. The Superintendent, Government Press, will print these registers and issue them direct to the Presidents for distribution to the Registrars concerned, so as to reach them at least by the end of November of each alternate year.

this rule more than a year after the entry has been made except with the previous sanction of the President.

Registrar to give extract of entry free.

14. The Registrar shall, as soon as the registration of a marriage has been completed, give, on application, free of all charges, to the person who gives information of the marriage an extract under his hand from the register relating to such marriage. For purposes of this rule the register will be the register of originals kept by the Registrar.

Search of marriage registers.

15. Any person may, at any reasonable time, on payment of a fee of four annas for each visit, search any register of marriages. For purposes of this rule the Register of marriages will be the returns sent monthly by the Registrar through the President to the Registrar-General and filed in the Central Statistical Office.

Issue of marriage certificate.

16. Any person requiring a certificate of marriage may put in an application affixing a one-anna court-fee stamp and enclose an eight-anna court-fee stamp to be affixed to the certificate.

The application should state clearly:

(i) The name and father's name of the party in relation to whose marriage a certificate is required.

(ii) The date, month and year of the occurrence.

(iii) The name of the street and the division where the event occurred, and

(iv) The postal address of the applicant for copy.

The application may be addressed either to the Registrar-General or to the President who will forward it to the Registrar-General. On receipt of such an application, the Registrar General will cause the return relating to the occurrence to be traced and a true copy of the same to be issued over his signature and sent to the President for being given to the parties concerned.

Penalty for omission to give information.

17. Any person whose duty it is to give information under the preceding rules and who neglects or refuses to give such information or gives false information shall be liable to a fine not exceeding ten rupees.

Government press, direct to Presidents for distribution to Registrars.

Triplicate copies to be sent monthly to the President of the Municipality

9. The triplicate pages which have been written up during each month shall be detached at the perforation and sent by the Registrar to the President of the Municipality so as to reach him on or before the 5th of each month for being posted into the consolidated register of marriages which shall be maintained in each Municipality.

If during any month no marriages have taken place, the triplicate form should be sent with the remark " Nil " written thereon.

Duplicates to be sent monthly to the President on or before the 5th of each month The President to collect these returns from Registrars and forward them to the Registrar-General so as reach him on or before the 8th of each Month.

10. The duplicate pages shall be similarly detached at the perforation and sent to the President so as to reach him on or before the 5th of each month. On receipt of these returns the President, after scrutinizing them carefully should forward them in a bundle to the Registrar-General so as to reach him on or before the 8th of each month When, however, some returns are not received on the due dates reminders should immediately be sent to the defaulting Registrars and after obtaining these returns all such late returns should be forwarded in a second batch so as to reach the Registrar-General on or before the 18th of the month

Procedure in the Office of the President. Check to ensure regular receipt of returns

11 A set of posting registers showing the names of the Registrars will be maintained in the Office of the President in which the returns received will be posted as they come in. When these registers show that returns have not been received by the 8th of the month, a reminder will be sent to the Registrars The President will keep a posting register of reminders received from the Registrar-General and of reminders issued to the Registrars and will initiate disciplinary action against Registrars who are frequently in default

The procedure in the Central Statistical Office in respect of these returns will be the same as in the case of births and deaths

The original Register to be finally deposited in the Office of the President

12 Each Register of originals shall be retained in the custody of the Registrar for two years after it closed and shall then be sent to the President who, after careful scrutiny of all unattested erasures and alterations shall file it as a permanent record

Errors

13 Every error found in the register of marriages shall be corrected by drawing a line through the original entry (but no so as to render it illegible) and writing the new entry above it, and the correction shall be fully signed and dated by the Registrar All such corrections shall be duly intimated to the Registrar-General through the President with the reasons therefor. The corrections, when approved by the Registrar-General, will be made in the returns filed in the Central Statistical Office and intimation will be given to the Presidents for intimation the Registrars concerned

Provided that no entry shall be corrected under this
